

Section 1: Performance Levels, Routine Placements, Age Divisions, Group Sizes and Performance Categories

Routines will compete and be scored based on four categories:

Section 1A: Performance Levels

Journey has created 4 Performance Levels for competition. It is up to studio owners/directors to place their dancers in Performance Levels accordingly. Each routine's Performance Level will be determined by the level of dancers in the routine.

Beginner Level: The Beginner Level is for dancers who have limited or no competition experience. New this season A dancer in the Beginner Level may compete in no more than 7 routines. Beginner Dancers may compete in the Intermediate Level and Advanced Lines and Productions. A Beginner dancer may compete no more than 1 solo.

Intermediate Level: The Intermediate Level is for dancers who have moderate competition and dance experience. If dancers have limited competition experience but above average technique and performance skill, they should be placed in the Advanced Level. New this season A dancer in the Intermediate Level may compete in no more than 9 routines. Intermediate dancers may compete in Beginner and Advanced group routines. An Intermediate dancer may compete no more than 2 solos. Intermediate Soloists will also be eligible for the Intermediate Title.

Advanced Level: The Advanced Level is for dancers, regardless of their routine count, who have significant competition and dance experience, or who have advanced technique and/or performance skills. New this season Dancers who perform in 10 or more routines will automatically be placed in the Advanced Level. Dancers in the Advanced Level may also compete in the Intermediate Level. A dancer in the Advanced Level may compete no more than 3 solos. Advanced Level soloists will be eligible for the Advanced Title.

Celebration Showcase: The Celebration Showcase is a unique opportunity that gives dancers who have special needs or different abilities and may face developmental or physical challenges a chance to celebrate their love of dance. We want these inspirational dancers to have a place to succeed and shine like the stars that they are. Dancers who perform in the Celebration Showcase will be critiqued fairly within their abilities. Scoring will focus on showmanship and musicality. Routines will be adjudicated and are eligible for Judge's Shoutout Awards. Dancers who perform in the Celebration Showcase are not eligible to compete in any other level of competition.

- At every Regional competition, the judging panel will have the ability to Level Up dancers to a higher level based on the overall skill set, technical ability and performance quality of each routine. In order for a routine to be officially Leveled Up, it must meet the following criteria: receives the approval of the Lead Judge, earns a top range score by the judging panel and receives the Show Director's approval to be Leveled Up.
- If a routine is Leveled Up and the new division has not taken place, the Leveled Up routine may re-compete in its appropriate division and will still be eligible for Overall awards.
- If a division has already been completed and presented Overall awards, the Leveled Up routine will be for adjudication only and will not be eligible for Overall awards.
- If a group routine is Leveled Up to a higher level, the individual dancers comprising the routine will each remain in their current level. If a routine is Leveled Up, any routine with the exact same dancers will also be Leveled Up.

Section 1B: Routine Placements

- Solos: Dancers compete in the Performance Level they are registered.
- Duo/Trios: The most advanced dancer determines the Performance Level of the routine.
- Small Groups, Large Groups & Lines: No more than 49% of the dancers may be from a higher Performance Level.
- Productions: No more than 25% of the dancers may be from a higher Performance Level. Production Age Divisions are determined by the average age of performers, 12 & Under and 13 & Over.
- Routines that consist of the exact same dancers must compete in the same Performance Level and Age Division.

Section 1C: Age Divisions

Each entry will be placed in one of the following age divisions based on the average age of all performers in the routine. A performer's age is determined by their age as of January 1st. When averaging the age, all decimals are dropped. Studio directors must be prepared to present birth certificates should a protest arise.

Age Divisions
Age Division	Ages
Mini	6 & Under
Petite	7-9
Junior	10-12
Teen	13-15
Senior	16-19
Adult	20 & Over

- Age Divisions for Productions are determined by the average age of performers, 12 & Under and 13 & Over.
- Routines may compete no more than 1 Age Division lower than the oldest dancer in the routine, except in the Production Division.
Example - Any entry with a dancer 16 years old, or older, may not compete in any age division lower than 13-15.
- Any person who is visible on stage once the routine has started and prior to the end of the routine will be considered a performer and is subject to age division and group size rules.
- Any group including a dancer who is 18 years old or older, AND out of high school, cannot be entered in our 12 and under age division, regardless of the average age.
- Any routine including a teacher or an adult is not eligible for overall awards. A teacher is someone who choreographs or teaches class and is 20 years of age or older. Routines with teachers in them may perform for adjudication only. This does not apply to student teachers under 20.

Section 1D: Group Sizes

Routines will be placed in a division listed below based on the number of dancers in the routine:

Group Sizes
Group Size	Number of Performers
Solo	1
Duo/Trio	2-3
Small Group	4-9

Line	19+
Production	20+

- Upon registering, routines with 19 or more dancers will be given the opportunity to register as a large group or line. Routines with 20 or more dancers may register as a line or production. This should be determined by the routine length and purpose.
Example - If a group with 20 dancers is 4 minutes long, it is eligible to compete as a line or production. However, if a group of 20 dancers is 6 minutes, it is only eligible to compete as a production.
